Asserts Law Must be Maintained Without Regard to Personal Opinions

WANTS PUBLIC WELFARE BUREAU

Voices Belief Women Will Stand With Republicans Against League

MARION, Ohio, Oct. 1.—Law enforcement of prohibition was emphasized "without qualification" today by Senator Harding in a speech before the Ohio legislature. The senator outlined a policy of enforcement which he believed would bring about the complete prohibition of alcohol in this country.

Addressing a gathering of women, the Republican senator proposed establishment of a "department of public welfare" in the national government, and said that he believed law enforcement was one of the important responsibilities of such a department.

"The enforcement of the law is an executive responsibility," he continued, "and must be undertaken by the executive without regard for his personal approval or disapproval of the law which he has been sworn to enforce. We must all recognize the fact that the failure of enforcement of the law is a failure of government."

Senator Harding also pointed out that the failure of enforcement of the law is a failure of government, and that the failure of enforcement of the law is a failure of government.

WARSAW, Poland, Oct. 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—Defeat of the Russians on the Polish northern front seems virtually complete.

The result of the Polish victory is declared by the military experts as eliminating any chance of the Bolsheviks launching the fall offensive which war minister Trotsky was credited with planning to drive back the Poles from the territory they occupied after the failure of the soviet attempt to capture Warsaw.

The commander of the third Bolshevik army committed suicide. It is asserted, when he realized that his command had been completely smashed.

The communists last night reported that Polish troops, sweeping across the Polish front, had driven the Bolsheviks north of the Polish front, the key to the old German trench line. With it a quantity of war material was taken.

South of the Dnieper, the Russians have been pushed back across the river Dnieper.

Polish cavalry has occupied Novorossiysk, about midway between Leningrad and Kiev.

Reports show that the Poles are less than 35 miles from Vilna, the Lithuanian capital, and their advance is continuing.
